

Legislative Commission on Indian Services

SB 770 GOVERNMENT-TO-GOVERNMENT STATE AGENCY TRAINING
MAY 22ND & 23RD, 2002

As stated in Executive Order 96-30, “the purpose of formalizing the government-to-government relationship that exists between Oregon’s Indian tribes and the State is to establish a process which can assist in resolving conflicts, maximize key inter-governmental relations and enhance an exchange of ideas and resources for the greater good of all of Oregon’s citizens, whether tribal members or not.”

In a desire to share some information to further assist our relationships, please note the web sites below:

Legislative Commission on Indian Services:

<http://www.leg.state.or.us/cis/>

Oregon’s Nine Federally Recognized Tribes:

<http://www.leg.state.or.us/cis/tribes2.pdf>

2001-03 Oregon Directory of American Indian Resources:

<http://www.leg.state.or.us/cis/directory2001.pdf>

Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Indian Tribes

<http://www.leg.state.or.us/cis/faq.pdf>

Governor’s Government-To-Government home page:

<http://www.governor.state.or.us/gov2gov.htm>

Government-To-Government Key Contacts Directory:

<http://www.governor.state.or.us/governor/gov2gov/directory/g2gdircont.htm>

Government-To-Government State Agency 2001 Reports:

<http://www.governor.state.or.us/governor/gov2gov/memo/memo2001.htm>

Executive Order 96-30 – Tribal/State Government-To-Government Relations:

<http://www.governor.state.or.us/governor/legal/execords/eo96-30.pdf>

Senate Bill 770:

http://pub.das.state.or.us/LEG_BILLS/PDFs/ESB770.pdf